

Please do not overturn the provisions of the NJ Do Not Call list. If a consumer wants to do business with which it has a history, then allow the consumer to initiate the contact. Perhaps it was not a mutually satisfying relationship. And if it were not, it can open the door for possible abuse. Please allow the NJ law to exist as written.

Thank you in advance for your consideration to this matter.